

Peak Structural Features

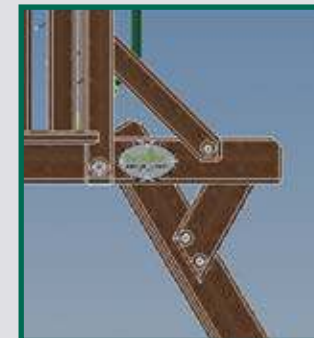

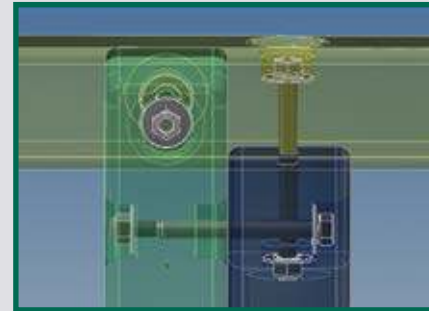

The Peak Series forts are architecturally designed to be virtually immovable, with a combination of superior structural features that make them rock solid:

- Triple lock joints for ultimate stability
- Double locking gussets between legs, floor supports and roof supports bind the mid-section to the base
- Post and beam floor joist system unmatched in strength and weight bearing capacity

Ask about our recessed floor design for a seamless transition between the inside and outside of the play area.

TRIPLE LOCK JOINTS

DOUBLE LOCKING GUSSETS

POST AND BEAM FLOOR JOIST SYSTEM